

Centro de Vida Independente (CVI)

This institution provides help to people with mental disabilities but also people who are blind or deaf. At the moment 14 people are living at the center and many others come during the day and return home in the evening.

They get 50% help from the Prefeitura. They use the money to pay rent, lights, food, and medication.